Dear Scott,

I am writing this letter to personally thank you and your company, Capital Construction of America, for your outstanding commitment to Clark Realty Builders throughout the duration of the Quantico Marine Corps Base Family Housing Project.

As Clark Realty Builders has continued its expansive growth, Capital Construction has demonstrated its ability to continue to meet our company's high standards for quality and workmanship, as well as our rigorous production schedules. Your work over the years has been performed in a timely and professional manner, and your qualified staff has been a pleasure to work with. Your willingness to quickly respond to all questions and concerns in the field and the office has demonstrated your commitment to your work as well extended your excellent reputation for customer service.

Based on my experiences here at Quantico I would recommend Capital to any other member of the construction industry. I consider your company to be among the most qualified construction companies in the area and I appreciate your company's continued support of Clark projects in the future.

Sincerely,

Ed Johnson
